More Denials.

Republican headquarters, national and state, maintained today the same onfident attitude of the last two closed tonight in the state of Washington with both sides confident and both and state, maintained today the same expects, according to Secretary Lou-scheduled to make ten speeches in reached his home county of Duchess or Bryan is not likely to exceed 5,00 this afternoon, and plans to remain there until the returns are in. He said the state and upon the creation of the public service commissions to supervise utility corporations of every sort. After declining to answer Governor Hughes' questions on those issues for twelve days, Mr. Chanler finally announced that he was opposed to a repeal of the laws which stamped out gambling, and that while he would not gambling, and that while he would not bolish the public service commissions. he was in favor of electing their highy-paid members.

PACIFIC COAST STATES.

California.

San Francisco, Oct. 30.—The campaign in alifornia, the least enthusiastic in the story of the state, virtually closed to-ight. Final rallies were held by both the history of the state, virtually closed to-history of the state, virtually closed to-hight. Final rallies were held by both the Democratic Chairman Nugent concedes Democratic and Republicans in all the larger elties, and the state chairmen have given out their estimates. Both claim the state for their respective ticekts, the Restate for their respective ticekts, the Reblicans by 45,000, and the Democrats by 20,000 plurality. The Republicans claim that a solid delegation will be returned to congress, but the Democrats refuse to concede this declaring that concede this, declaring that at least two Democrats will be elected. The legisla-ture, which will choose a successor to Senator Perkins, will probably be Repub-lican aven the Democrats refuse to lican, even the Democrats conceding this. San Francisco city is claimed by the Democrats by 10,000. California gave Roose-velt 115,000 plurality over Parker in 1904.

Nevada.

Reno, Nev., Oct. 30 .- J. P. Somers, chalrman of the Democratic state cen-tral committee, said tonight: Information which we have carefully ompiled enables me to state that the emocrats will carry the state by not ess than 4.100 majority for Bryan. The fact that Senator Newlands is making his campaign for election by vote of the people, under an agreement with his opponent, adds great strength to the party at this time. We predict the election of the tire state and congressional ticket, and il not lose a single one of the counties" hairman Fumphries of the Republican

New York's Latest Fad

In Footwear-

BLACK BUCK BUTTON BOOTS

For ladies' smart wear. ALSO in BROWN SUEDE and LON-DON SMOKE (grey).

THE NEW EFFECTS AL-WAYS TO BE HAD AT

Davis Shoe Co.

238 Main Street

tate central committee Issued the follow-

g statement tonight: "The situation in Nevada from the Re-iblican standpoint is more than encourpublican standpoint is more than encouraging, and we have every assurance to believe that Taft will carry the state by over 2,000. The vote this election will be 75 per cent greater than two years ago, approximating 25,000. The Independence and Socialist parties will poll about 4,000, nearly all drawn from the Democrats. Many Democrats will vote for Taft, con-vinced that his personality is not dis-similar to Bryan, while his election will give a speedler assurance of improved conditions. Flanagan's campaign to suc-Continued from Page 1. ceed Newlands has been one of the most remarkable in the history of the state, and at this date his battle seems virtually won, carrying with him the ticket.

Washington.

Denver, Colo., Oct. 31.—Colorado is properly classed as doubtful in forecast-ing election results. A hot contest has been waged between Republicans and denslager, that the Republican majority in the Sixty-first congress will be greater than at first expected. It is believed at headquarters that the increase will come from several southern states. Secretary Loudenslager's forecast, issecretary Loudenslager's forecast, with the Prohibition and Socialist parties, which likewise have between Republicans and for Ca. Johnson, Republican Committee claims that North Dakota will be for Taft by more than 23,000, and for C. A. Johnson, Republican, for governor Burke, Democrats Chairm tonight so far as the Democrats are ocratic state and legislative tickets, espe-concerned, but Governor Hughes is cially in Denver. Republican Chairman John F. Vivian and Democratic Chairman Greater New York Monday night. Lieutenant Governor Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler, his Democratic opponent; reached his home county of Duchess.

that his Poughkeepsie home-coming Cheyenne, Wyo., Oct. 31.—Republican speech tonight meant the end of his Chairman C. W. Burdick claims Wyoming Governor Hughes has relied chiefly in efforts for re-election upon his successful attack on race track gambling in efforts for re-election upon his successful attack on race track gambling in the state and upon the creation of electors and congressman, though he, too. furnishes no estimate of the vote. The Idaho.

Boise, Ida., Oct. 31.-The Statesman (Republican), after a careful canvass of the state through correspondents and confidential channels, claims the state by greatly reduced majority for the Republican party. It gives Taft a plurality of ten thousand and Brady, for governor, six thousand. Republican Chairman O'Nail claims the election of both six thousand. Republican Chairman O'Neil claims the election of both and the WESTERN STATES.

Nebraska.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 31.—Both Democratic and Republican state committees have practically closed their campaign in Nebraska, and both are confident that they will carry the state. The Republican committee is more sanguine now than it was two weeks ago when it admitted it. was two weeks ago, when it admitted it had a hard fight on its hands. Chairman Keifer would make no statement regarding Taft's expected majority in the state, but thinks that the vote will closely re-semble that of 1900, when McKinley carried the state by 7,000. Chairman Allen of the Democratic com mittee is confident that his brother-in-law, William J. Bryan, will carry the state. The Democrats this year have the most complete organization that they ever

They state that the bank guarantee plank has caught many votes, and they claim 35 per cent of the labor vote.

It is generally conceded that the farmer vote will go to Taft and that Bryan will make great gains in the cities and towns. Non-partisan predictions are to the effect that the majority of the successful candidates of the state will not exceed 5,000.

Topeka, Kan., Oct. 31.-William J. Bryan will close a memorable campaign by making several speeches in this state Monday and then will hurry home on a special train to vote. He will leave both of the eading parties claiming Kansas. Republican State Chairman Dolley late today ee for senator.

Illinois.

Chicago, Oct. 31 .- The campaign in IIinois will not actually close until the voting is finished. While it is generally coneded that the state is safe for the Repub-lican national ticket, a keen fight exists over the governorship between fight exists over the governorship between Charles S. Deneen. Republican. and Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic leader. It is admitted by the Republican leaders that their gubernatorial candidate will run considerably behind the national ticket and the Democrats confidently claim that their man will be elected. on, the Democratic leader. It is admitted by the Republican leaders that their guernatorial candidate will run considerably behind the national ticket and the Democrats confidently claim that their nan will be elected.

Although leaders of both parties make nore or less sweeping claims of success.

Although leaders of both parties make more or less sweeping claims of success, there seems to be no reason to doubt that lilinois will choose the Republican national ticket, a Republican legislature which will choose a successor to Albert J. Hookins, senator, and the probability is that they will succeed in electing the head Jersey by about 49,000 plurality, while the

of their state ticket, although this is not It is believed, however, that majorities for Mr. Taft in the various counties of the state will show a marked decrease of those given for Mr. Roosevelt four years

Missouri.

St. Louis, Oct. 31.—A normal Democratic majority for the entire Democratic ticket, state and national, is the claim of State Chairman Rubey of that party. This would mean pluralities ranging from 25,-900 to 39,000 for each of the candidates. The Republican managers dispute this claim, however, asserting that Attorney General Herbert S. Hadley is certain to be elected governor over his Democratic opponent, Congressman William Cowherd, and that Taft and Sherman will also carand that Taft and Sherman will also car-Conservative estimates give the state to Bryan and Foik, with Cowherd as the probable victor in the gubernatorial con-test.

Hall of the Republican committee claims that North Dakota will be for Taft by more than 23,000, and for C. A. Johnson, Republican, for governor, by 14,000 over Governor Burke, Democrat.

that the contest for governor is going to be close. In the second district the contest is close between J. T. McCleary, former fourth assistant postmaster general, and W. S. Hammond for congressional but ocrats one, and four in doubt.

Wisconsin.

Michigan.

Detroit, Oct. 31 .- As a result of the bitter fight in the Republican party during the primary, Democratic hopes for the success for the head of the state ticket. Lawton T. Hemans of Mason, are higher than for several years. Michigan is generally conceded to Taft by a large majority.

CENTRAL STATES.

Ohio.

Columbus, O., Oct. 31.—Henry A. Williams, chairman of the Republican committee, said tonight:

"As the results in figures from informa-

Indianapolis, Oct. 31.—The closing days of the campalgn in Indiana witnessed a flood of oratory. John W. Kern has put in a hard week, speaking early and late; Senator Beveridge traveled the state from one end to the other; Vice President Fairbanks has spoken at various points for the preservation of peace and unity in Utah. He said that here he is the peace and unity in Utah. He said that here he is the point of point and one end to the other; Vice President Fairbanks has spoken at various points for Mr. Taft, and today Mr. Bryan made more than twenty speeches in the state.

The Demograts are claiming the state.

and unity in Utah. He said that here he consent of the state.

Ived, and here he expects to die, and hoped never to see again the bitterness and ill-feeling which attended religious to speak, and free to vote without fear, molestation, intimidation or undue influence and of the state.

Judge Powers then read the interview with Frank L Taylor, printed elsewhere to speak, and free to vote without fear, molestation, intimidation or undue influence and of the state. The Democrats are claiming the state for Bryan, while the Republicans expect Taft will be victorious by a small plural-

Baltimore, Oct. 31.—Chairman Vandiver of the Democratic state committee says Maryland will give Bryan 6,000 majority while Chairman Parren claims the state for Taft by 9,000. The Democrats seem to have some ground for hope that they will gain at least one congressman.

lican State Chairman Dolley late today said that a careful poll showed that Taft would carry the state by a plurality of 30,000, and that the state ticket headed by Walter R. Stubbs for governor, would repairs the same plurality.

Continued Republicans to night claim the state for Taft by at least 10,000 plurality and avow that they will elect congressmen in the Fifth and Seventh districts in addition to the four they will east districts in addition to the four they are the same plurality. Democratic Chairman Martin at the same time declared that Bryan would receive a plurality of 24,000 in Kansas, and that the entire Democratic ticket, with J. D. Botkin for governor, would be elected. He gave no figures on the state ticket.

The Republican leaders claim that the legislature, which is to elect a successor to United States Senator Chester I. Long, will continue Republican, and that Joseph L. Bristow will be selected for that office. Hugh P. Warrelly is the Democratic nominee for senator.

Martin at the effect congressmen in the Fifth and Seventh and Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 31.—Both parties claim West Virginia state and national, the Republicans by over 20,000 plurality, and the Democrats by 10,000.

Non-partisan estimates make the state close on Taft and Bryan, with chances favoring the Republican candidate, while it is likely the Democratic state candidates will win by a small plurality.

Delaware.

Continued from Page 1.

Milwaukee. Oct. 31.—Both Republicans and Democrats claim Wisconsin by pluralities, respectively, of 75,000 and 50,000 votes. A conservative estimate gives the Republicans seven congressmen, the Democrats have been moved over enough. This year we will stand firm. We refuse to come over any longer." ciently for him to be heard. In general he followed the outlines of the speech delivered at the Lyric theatre and his reading of the Democratic declaration of principles, which he alluded to as the nine points of faith, was received with tumultures appliance. When he stated that the tuous applause. When he stated that the mask had now been thrown off and that instructions to vote for the Republican county candidates was being given by stake presidents and men high in the Mormon church, a gray-bearded man in the audience interrupted him and asked. "Can you name one man who has done that?" "Yes," answered Judge Powers. "Frank L. Taylor at Granite stake this afternoon. The quick reply was greeted individual. mittee, said tonight:

"As the results in figures from information received from every possible source I am convinced that Judge Taft will carry Ohio by not less than 75,000 plurality, and that the plurality of Governor Harris and the state ticket will be substantially the same."

W. L. Finley, Democratic state chairman, said tonight: "I am very deliberate and extremely confident when I predict that Mr. Bryan's plurality in Ohio will exceed 50,000."

Indiana.

Indiana.

"Frank L. Taylor at Granite stake this afternoon. The quick reply was greeted with wild cheers from the audience as who asked if Nephi L. Morris had signed the circular which was being read. After these questions Judge Powers said: "I have addressed many a political meeting, but I never had anything to take back and never said anything I could not prove." He also said: "Nephi L. Morris by his actions will crucify the peace of this state, he will crucify his own people and will crucify his own people and will crucify his own church. We want Democrats who believe in Democracy. There is no man great enough or leading to the circular which was being read. After these questions Judge Powers said: "I have addressed many a political meeting, but I never had anything to take back and never said anything I could not prove." He also said: "Nephi L. Morris by his actions will crucify his own people and will crucify his own church. We want Democrats who believe in Democraty. There is no man great enough or leading the prover."

King Denounces False Charges.

Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia. Oct. 31—Chairman Andrews of the Republican state committee today gave out a statement that the Republican national ticket will carry the state by at least a quarter of a million, and that the Republicans expect to elect twenty-eight of the thirty-two congressmen.

Chairman Dimeling of the Democratic state cocommittee said:

"The election will show a great reduction in the Republican majority in Pennsylvania and pronounced gains in the Pennsylvania delegation in congress."

State Chairman Samuel A. King presided at the theatre meeting and made a speech which he accommodatingly delivered in sections in order to enable Mr. Roberts and Judge Powers to speak without waiting. Mr. King's speech aroused the greatest enthusiasm and he was frequently cheered to the campaigns of 1900 and 1902, when he and other Democratic Smoot would with certainty prove detrimental to the people of the state and result in strife and turmoil. He said conditions are similar now to what they were before Smoot's election and that the trouble and strife would continue, should Smoot continue in the senate.

Mr. King denounced in the strongest State Chairman Samuel A. King pre-State Chairman Samuel A. King presided at the theatre meeting and made a speech which he accommodatingly delivered in sections in order to enable Mr.
Roberts and Judge Powers to speak without waiting. Mr. King's speech aroused the greatest enthusiasm and he was frequently cheered to the echo. In beginning he referred to the campaigns of 1990 and 1992, when he and other Democrats pointed out that the ambition of Reed Smoot would with certainty prove detrimental to the people of the state and remental to the people of the state and result in strife and turmoil. He said conditions are similar now to what they were before Smoot's election and that the trouble and strife would continue, should Smoot continue in the senate.

Mr. King denounced in the strongest

Democratic managers say the state will be given to Bryan by 17,000. The unknown quantity is the labor vote.

NEW ENGLAND STATES.

Massachusetts.

Boston. Oct. 31.—Massachusetts being generally conceded to the Republican national ticket, the campaign this year has been a quiet one. It is expected also that the delegation to congress will remain unchanged. The campaign, therefore, has been practically confined to the question of the governorship.

Maine.

Democratic party, "The Democratic party," he declared, "is not in alliance with any party. We stand for our party, its candidates and its principles. But the Democratic party He said that the person, be he Mormon or non-Mormon, who suggests or insinuates that the Democratic party refuses to be controlled by the federal bunch in Utah. It denies the right of Nephi Morris, a Republican and former supporter of Thomas Kearns, to dictate to it and direct its members how they shall vote."

Mr. King said that if any combine existing unpleasant conditions can be becontrolled by the federal bunch in Utah. It denies the right of Nephi Morris, a Republican and former supporter of Thomas Kearns, to dictate to it and direct its members how they shall vote."

Mr. King said that if any crisis is at hand, it is one produced by the Republican party and its leaders are responsible. He declared that there is only one course left for the Democratic party of Utah, composed of more than 50 per cent Mormons, is attempting to destroy their church or to drive the people of Utah from their homes, is an entered to the simple progress and on the weight of the person, so they so the federal bunch in Utah. It denies the right of Nephi Morris, a Republican and to the existing unpleasant conditions can be existing unpleasant conditions can be becauted by the existing unpleasant conditions can be controlled by the controlled by the controlled by the controlled by the care party. The Democratic party of Utah and on the people of Utah and on the people of Utah from their church or to drive the pex ways is considered certain to choose Republican electors, no attention has been given to it by the national committees since the close of the September election,

Regulation benderatives. Bellows and after including the power of the possibility of the power o

The Issue in Utah.

Reads the Declaration.

At this point Judge Powers read the nine points of the declaration:

"First—That man may worship his maker as his conscience dictates.

"Second—That no state nor political body has the right to interfere with this great privilege.

"Fifth-That in a free country no man for body of men can, with safety to the clesiastical or otherwise.

"Seventh-That no political party can be required to obtain the consent of any paign.

"This is the doctrine of Democracy. It cratic ticket instead of the Boltzmann of the Boltzm emies of the Mormon church. History will "I regret that we cannot discuss here the questions which are being considered throughout the whole nation, but we have here in Utah questions and conditions thrust upon us which will not down. An attempt is being made to put an end to national politics in this state. A crisic exists at the present time, a serious crisis. If the people of Utah see fit to abandon the constitution under which they were granted statehood by a Democratic administration and through the efforts of a Democratic senator from Utah, it will be only after I have voiced my objection to such a course. I want to see this state advance, be enriched and glorified by having citizens who are worthy of it, My wish can be fulfilled if the Democratic of this state are true to their party and to their convictions during this "I regret that we cannot discuss here prove that those who play on the holy departy and to their convictions during this governor who would give a safe and fair campaign.

"I must attend another meeting tonight, and before I go I would urge again that the Democrats stand firm. The Democrats have been moved over enough. This year we will stand firm. We refuse to come over any longer."

When Judge Powers entered the Salt Lake theatre he was greeted with a wild burst of cheers, and it was several minutes before the audience quieted sufficiently for him to be heard. In general he followed the outlines of the speech delivered at the Lyric theatre and his reading of the Democratic declaration of principles was formulated:"

campaign.

"The mask has been thrown off. There administration.

"The election of the Republican candidate for governor would mean the election of a man who is a head of one of the most which ever cursed the church are urging their people to abandon the Democratic party. We struggled burst of cheers, and it was several minutes before the audience quieted sufficiently for him to be heard. In general he followed the outlines of the speech delivered at the Lyric theatre and his reading of the Democratic declaration of principles was formulated:"

Salt Lake theatre at which, after great deliberation the following declaration of principles was formulated:"

Salt Lake theatre at which, after great deliberation the following declaration of principles was formulated:"

Salt Lake theatre he was a reconvened by a Democratic party in the Salt Lake theatre at which, after great deliberation the following declaration of principles was formulated:"

Salt Lake theatre he was a reconvened by a Democratic party in the Salt Lake theatre at which, after great deliberation the following declaration of principles was formulated:"

The election of the Republican candidate for governor would mean the election of one of the man whom is a head of one of the man who is a head of one of the man who is a head of one of the man who is a head of one of the man who is a head of one of the man who is a head of one of the man who is a head of one of the man who is a head of one of the man who is a

is a candidate for a political office I have the right to discuss whether he shall be elected or not. His election has brought trouble on the whole state. Wherever we go throughout the United States we are looked on as dime museum curiosities,

"I was made to feel it especially at the Denver national convention. But at that convention when the leaders of the party wished to insert a plank in the national platform concerning the union of church and state I told them we would fight that question out at home. I have faith in the question out at home. I have faith in the success or failure.

"These ecclesiastics who are interfering with the political a airs today, I believe, are actuated by a noble impulse. They would save the band of the greaser. or from imprisonment in the penitentiary. I am one of that twenty-six. (Great cheering.)

"I say I believe their impulse is noble, but I do not think that there is any danger that we will either go to Mexico or to the penitentiary, whether their efforts to elect the Republican party meet with success or failure. people. I believe that some day the Mor-mon people themselves will settle this question as they ought. I know that they are a God-fearing people, a long-suffering people faithful to their beliefs and to their leaders, but they are like the rest of us, born of the same clay and they will nor body of men can, with safety to the state, use the name or the power of any religious sect or society to influence or control the elective franchise.

"Sixth—That a trust is imposed upon each citizen in a free country to act politically upon his own judgment and absolutely free from control of dictation, ecclesiastical or otherwise.

"They will rise up in rebellion at the polls and settle forever the question of church domination in this state. I think church domination in this state. I think not advise his people to vote the Demo-

HEWLETT'S THREE (ROHA Lest you forget, ask your grocer for them today.

fy yourselves should you vote the Re-publican ticket. We ask for no ecclesias-tical influence. All the Democratic party asks is to be let alone.

"If we had had a square deal in this campaign we would lick the Republicans to a finish. But whether we are licked or not we will not be driven into any other party. Did you ever stop to think that a Democrat has more lives than a cat? Like the dandelion, they come up smiling every spring, and like the dandelion nothing has ever been found to exterminate them. And I wish to tell you that it looks most bright for our success at this election. It appears as though the Democratic party is to be again intrusted with power, talked today with a representative Gompers, and the labor vote is to be cast for William J. Bryan." At this point Brigham H. Roberts en-tered the theatre and after delivering a tribute to Mr. Roberts, Judge Powers in-success or failure. "Democrats, I believe the question of peace in Utah is up to you. It is for you to stand true to your principles and your candidates. Some day there will be a change. Better counsel will prevail and the church leaders will learn that the sacrifice is not worth the price-the niury they are doing the church by interfering in politics. They are allenating the affections of hundreds of young men and women in the church,

Position of Catholic Church. There is a lesson for these church leaders in the dispatch which I will read to you. To follow such an example would bring great good to Utah. This is lipped from a morning paper:
"'Washington, Oct. 29.—National Dem ocratic Committeeman Edwin A. New-man of the District of Columbia related tonight a recent conversation he had with Cardinal Gibbons, as important in indicating the attitude of the Catholic church in the present presidential cam-

He hands her Merry Widow chocolates upon arriving at her home to spend the evening.

She serves him Mc-Donald's pure cocoa when he suggests it is time to go.

Thoughtful young man—considerate—evincing desire to please. She manifests a quality of domesticity which surely he perceives—wisdom in selecting the best made cocoa—frugal in using it and which goes twice as far—because of double strength; domestic in that she conceived the clever idea and executed it so delightfully.

This can only lead to one thing — home and happiness